CREATE YOUR OWN MOOD

CHROMOTHERAPY
WHIRLPOOL BATHS
IMMERSE YOURSELF IN THE THERAPEUTIC QUALITIES OF COLOUR

Colour, like bathing, is a sensory experience. It can stimulate, relax, soothe, regenerate and refresh. As the scent of bath salts or the flicker of candles can influence our bathing experience, so can the powerful psychological properties of colour. Immerse yourself in a pool of colour and your mind and body are infused with the qualities that each individual shade brings.

ABOUT CHROMOTHERAPY

WHAT COLOUR IS YOUR MOOD?

According to specialists in colour therapy, each of the seven colours of the spectrum resonate with one of the body’s chakras (spiritual energy centres) to bring a sense of composure and equilibrium.*

VIOLET (the crown) promotes enlightenment, revelation, and spiritual awakening whilst soothing the internal organs, relaxing muscles and calming the nervous system.

INDIGO (the brow) acts as a calming sedative, promoting intuition and is said to be helpful in controlling bleeding and abscesses.

BLUE (the throat) encourages communication and knowledge, and, thanks to its de-toxifying effect, it is used to treat liver disorders and jaundice.

GREEN (the heart) produces a feeling of calm that is considered effective in ulcer treatment and, because of its seemingly antiseptic properties, the alleviation of bacterial infections.

YELLOW (the solar plexus) stimulates wisdom and clarity, and is thought to have decongestant and antibacterial action whilst invigorating both the digestive and lymphatic system.

ORANGE (the sacral, pelvis/groin area) arouses enthusiasm and sexual stimulation, and is considered to possess antibacterial properties and provide relief for digestive discomforts.

RED (the base of the spine) imparts energy, empowerment and motivation, and is believed to improve circulation and stimulate red blood cell production.

CHROMOTHERAPY LIGHTING – A BLEND OF ANCIENT WISDOM AND MODERN TECHNOLOGY

Colour therapy can be traced back to the Vedic masters of ancient India and the Egyptian healers on the banks of the Nile. Their treatments were based around the spectrum of colours that make up sunlight, and an understanding of how the different properties of each colour affects our moods and general wellbeing.

Psychiatrists today are able to pinpoint the effect colour has on our mind and body, and the role it has in maintaining a balanced mental and physical state. Increasingly present in the fields of alternative medicine and natural healing, colour therapy is being used to treat a variety of conditions including stress, depression and lack of energy.

Now, Pegasus have developed a range of Chromotherapy Whirlpool Baths that allow you to combine the healing energies of colour with the comfort of a luxurious bath.

RELAX, RECUPERATE AND REVIVE IN A PEGASUS CHROMOTHERAPY BATH

There’s much more to a Pegasus chromotherapy bathing system than the beneficial effects of colour therapy. Our beautifully designed baths provide a personal paradise where you can escape the world, soothe your body and calm your mind.

As well as 6 adjustable chromotherapy jets supplying energising light across the spectrum, all our chromotherapy baths incorporate microjets in the back and foot areas to deliver intense hydrotherapy around the entire body. All this is incorporated in a Superdeep design (minimum 400mm deep), allowing full-body immersion for the ultimate bathing experience.

Add to this the Pegasus range of low foaming aromatherapy bath oils, all superior blends containing 3% essential oils, and you have the most effective means of releasing the full potential of essential oils to work on both the mind and body.

So whether you want to unwind in an atmosphere of tranquillity, soothe aching muscles, stimulate your mind... or just enjoy the fun of a Whirlpool, Pegasus chromotherapy baths provide the complete solution.

* While colour therapy may be an effective treatment for promoting relaxation and overall well-being, and as an adjunct, or complementary therapy in treating some disorders and illnesses, individuals with serious chronic or acute health problems should not rely solely on the therapy for treatment and should seek the advice of a qualified medical practitioner.
SOAK UP THE CHROMOTHERAPY EXPERIENCE IN A LUXURY WHIRLPOOL BATH

The elegant Pegasus Chromotherapy baths incorporate:

AROMATHERAPY BATH OILS

Mildly foaming, fragrant bath oil formulae blended especially for use in Whirlpool and Air-Spa baths...with 3% Essential oils! The air and water action of a whirlpool bath is one of the most effective means of releasing the true potential of essential oils to work on both the mind and body. In addition, a whirlpool bath continually re-circulates the bath water ensuring even distribution of any essential oils added to the bath, thereby promoting:

ABSORPTION - The bubbling action of a whirlpool bath softens the skin and opens the pores, enabling the body to easily absorb essential oils.

INHALATION - The millions of bubbles created by the whirlpool system carry small molecules of the oil, gradually rising to the surface where they are transformed into a steamy vapour just above the water. The bather benefits by inhaling this aromatherapy vapour, rich in essential oils.

RELAXATION - The gently swirling waters of a hydro-massage system relax muscles and ease away the aches, pains, stresses and strains of the day. This promotes a sense of well being and sound sleep which in turn creates a relaxed body and mind, on which the essential oils can work to maximum effect.

A choice of blends to meet every need

ACHES & PAINS blended with: CHAMOMILE, LAVENDER, ROSEMARY & SPANISH JUNIPER
